

New Life Community Church offers Renew Ministry to help people gain freedom from Satan’s lies by experiencing the truth of Jesus Christ. The guiding verses behind this ministry are: Hebrews 3:13; Galatians 5:1; Ephesians 6:13-14a; Romans 12:1-2; and 2 Corinthians 10:3-5.

I understand that volunteers serving in Renew Ministry are not therapists, professional counselors, or medical practitioners. They will not diagnosis, test, or treat me for anything. They are “encouragers” in the Christian faith who are willing to help me assume my responsibility for finding freedom in Christ.

My identity and the content of ministry sessions will be kept confidential. However, Renew Ministry members may inform a member of the Renew Ministry Leadership Team of the issues covered and the support I received. Also, Renew Ministry reserves the right to report suspected abuse or danger to myself, minor children, or the elderly to the appropriate authorities.

Neither members of the Renew Ministry nor the Pastoral Team of New Life Community Church are responsible for any outcome from my participation in this ministry. I understand that I am free to leave at any time and am here voluntarily. The Renew Ministry can terminate any and/or all sessions with me for any reason. They may choose to refer me for continued ministry or professional help but are not obligated to do so.

I understand that I am under no financial obligation for receiving encouragement through this ministry. Any money I choose to give to New Life Community Church is a donation, not payment for using the Renew Ministry.

Renew Ministry members will not meet with any minor (anyone less than 18 years old) without another adult present. The contents of ministry sessions with minors will not be shared with parents/legal guardians without consent from the minor. The exception to this confidentiality will be in the cases of suspected abuse or suspected danger to self or others.

I hereby release members of the Renew Ministry, New Life Community Church and any affiliates from liability for all acts performed in good faith and without malice in connection with this ministry experience.
