

God's Will & Decision Making

Part 3: Biblical Decision Making

God's leading through God's Spirit

Eph 4:24; 5:1; Phil 1:9-11; Rom 12:6-8; Eph 2:10

God's leading through human authorities

Eph 5:22-24; 6:1-8; Rom 13:1-7; Heb 13:17; 1 Pet 3:1-6; 2:18-21

God's guidance through conscience

Acts 24:16; Rom 9:1; 2 Cor 1:12; Rom 14:14, 23

God's guidance through wisdom

Prov 13:16; Eph 5:15-17; Prov 4:7

Expect God's Blessing Rom 8:31, 39

Discussion Questions

- 1) Pastor Kurt claimed: "Your spiritual gift is probably the most powerful and specific guidance God will reveal to you for your life." Do you agree? If so, how does this provide divine guidance for your life?
- 2) Pastor Kurt said: "The mere preferences of a human authority are the commands of God." Do you agree? How does this provide divine guidance for your life?
- 3) Pastor Kurt claimed: "Nothing is more important for humans than decision making, and nothing is more important for decision making than reason and wisdom." Do you agree? How does this relate to God-pleasing decision making?
- 4) What does the Bible repeatedly tell us to get counsel about decisions? Why is it such a neglected practice?
- 5) Pastor Kurt said: "Christians need to rely more on our Dad's desire and ability to bless our decisions, rather than striving so hard to make perfect decisions." How does this help you in the difficult task of making decisions?
- 6) What was most meaningful to you about this message?