

Complaining Isn't All That Bad, Is It?

Pastor Ben Hunt – November 2, 2025

Primary point: Complaint is pride using pain as a weapon — lament is humility surrendering that pain to God.

Primary Text: Psalm 42-43

1. Why God hates complaint.
2. But isn't it justified?
3. How humility transforms our complaint.

Application Questions:

1. When I vent — do I feel more surrendered to God after... or more justified in my anger?
2. When I talk about what hurts — am I elevating my identity as the “victim”... or my identity as God’s child?
3. What step of surrender would this pain actually require of me — and am I willing to bow there?
4. Do I have an addiction to complaint and irritation?
5. What was most meaningful about today's message and why?
